

Giro Biography

During his prestigious carrier, Giro has gain the unconditional support from his public. From his beginnings in the musical group “Los Chicos”, Giro shows his talent, by being part in the making of four productions and by entering into north, central and south America; this including Brazil (where Giro work for a period of six months between Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro and Recife). As a result of his outstanding work in the music business, he obtained the golden record at the New Jersey OTI awards, among others.

As a soloist in the Salsa genre, his career has sky rocket with songs that have been in the top music listings (“Billboard Magazine”); top song like: “Amor Lunático”, “El Pasajero”, “Si Tú Supieras”, “Mi Forma De Sentir”, “Siénteme”, y “Me Enamoré”. Giro’s productions obtained outstanding sale records, which resulted in well deserved awards like: Golden and Platinum record and awards like “Premio lo Nuestro” as a revelation singer, for the year 1995. These award winning songs did not stop there, they opened new doors and frontiers of opportunity and mayor exposure to countries and cities like: New York, Colombia, Miami, Venezuela, Panama, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Peru and Puerto Rico.

Giro has six productions as a show case. Giro brings to his fans “Simplemente un Corazón, then capturing his Salsero public with “Amor Lunático”, consolidates his career with “Si tu Supieras”, and reaffirms his music victories with “Historias de Amor”, “Solo Giro” and “Mi Nostalgia” completing the nomination for the “Latin Grammy” under the category of Tropical Production Year 2002.

There is no doubt, that Giro with his enormous quality and musical interpretive talent from his deep sentiments, take his fans to identify their own life’s with his songs. Now, Giro presents proudly his new musical production “Todavía hay Amor”, which we know already will be enjoy by both; the Salsero, el Bailador and the romantic fans.

